

7. What My Parents Taught Me About Life

John Guzlowski

Life is shit,
people are worthless,
you can't rely on anyone to help you or save you.

You're fucked up no matter what.

There's no heaven and the only hell you'll see is the hell here in your life.

But give us your hand.
We will stand with you on the corner and wait for the boat to heaven though it will never come.
