

Renditions

ARTWORK BY STANLEY HOROWITZ

Oil Rising up from the USS Arizona

After sixty-five years, the beauty of the surface still belies the tragedy below.

The artist's rendition of the Enola Gay over Hiroshima

STANLEY HOROWITZ lives on Long Island, New York. He has taught various disciplines for thirty-eight years and is currently teaching photography as an Adjunct Professor at The State College at Farmingdale in the Visual Communications Department.